Update: 18 May 2013

After all of the stuff Kathleen has been through over the past few years, she is now graduating from High

Update: 30 June 2012

Today was the second annual Pancake Benefit Breakfast for the Terrell Family as they continue to thum

Update: 09 June 2012

It has been a year now and Kathleen is still sporting her new liver!! She has had a few setbacks during t

Update: 25 June 2011

Kathleen is HOME!!!

Only two weeks after getting a new liver, Kathleen Terrell, daughter of WCFR FF/EMT James Terrell, is

Five weeks ago (18 May 2011), Kalthleen was admitted to the hospital having been told she will remain

Special thanks continue to go out to those involved in the fund raising, the delivery of meals, the well wis

Continued best wishes to all!

Update: 21 June 2011

Well we are waiting on a single antibiotic to take, Kathleen's INR and bleeding! If all goes well she will b

Update: 17 June 2011

Kathleen is doing much better as the days go by. Today she began eating regular food in an effort to go

Update: 11 June 2011

Today was the pancake breakfast that the surrounding Fire Departments and Fergus Lodge hosted for k

Update: 10 June 2011

Two of the first hurdles that need to be overcome have been already this morning! First, Kathleen made

Update: 09 June 2011

The transplant has been completed as of 0430 hrs this morning. Kathleen has been moved to the PICU

Update: 08 June 2011

KATHLEEN HAS A DONER!! It was confirmed this morning at 0700 hrs, that Kathleen has a match for a liver

Use the button below to help the Terrell's during this difficult financial time as Kathleen awaits h

Please note that PayPal will deduct 2.9% of the total amount you enter as well as $.30 for the transactio

Thank you for your help!